1. Upon instructions from the Revolutionary Military Council, the East China Military Area Command is selecting 50 students each from the infantry, artillery, signal, and supply cadre schools to receive instructions in the Japanese language. Reasons for the order, other than it was "dictated by needs of the state," were not given by the Revolutionary Military Council.
2. The East China Military and Administrative Committee has also received instructions to investigate the present status of students in its area who have studied in Japan and to register them before 1 August.
